REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS

This post involves working with children, young people, vulnerable adults or is a position of trust. The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are

'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found at the Disclosure and Barring Service website (www.gov.uk/dbs). Any failure to disclose the appropriate information could result in dismissal or disciplinary action by the organisation. Please note that a criminal record will not necessarily be a bar to obtaining a position.

Declaration
Have you at any time received a caution or conviction that is not 'protected@?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>

If yes, please state;

Do you have any previous offences? If so please give details

SUPPORTING INFORMATION

Skills, Knowledge and Experience

This section of the application form is very important, as this is where you demonstrate your suitability for the job. Read through the advertisement and the job description to get a clear view of what the job involves. The person specification describes the necessary skills, experience and qualifications we are looking for. Pay particular attention to those areas on the person specification described as essential.

Make sure that you tell us how you match the requirements of the job. Therefore, give examples of any relevant ability, experience and qualifications. This may be from your current or previous job, or from community or voluntary work, or from skills transferable from other life experience, particularly if you have been out of paid employment for some time. For example, you may have considerable domestic responsibilities, or may organise social or community activities in your spare time.

- Ensure that the information you provide is well organised and relevant.
- It should show to that extent you have gained the skills and experience necessary for the post.
- Give specific examples of the work you have been involved in, how you went about it and the outcome.
- Always remember to specify your responsibilities rather than those of your section or department

REFERENCES

Please give details of two referees, one of which must be from your current/last line manager. The second referee should also be from a previous employer. If you have not been previously employed please provide a personal reference. References will not be accepted from relatives, or persons who only know you as a friend. If you are a school or college leaver, then your Headteacher or Tutor's name should be given. In all cases make sure you use someone who knows your capabilities, can comment on your reliability and is aware of your potential. References may be taken up prior to interview with your consent.
